Called to Follow

FRONTLINE...

Soar High

A hunter once found a large egg in the mountains and placed it among a hen's eggs at his home. When the eggs hatched, the chicks followed the mother hen, scratching the ground and pecking at insects. Among them was the eaglet. Seeing the hen as its mother, it lived like the other chicks. Yet deep inside, something felt different. One day, it looked up and saw a mighty eagle soaring high, tearing through the sky with strength and freedom. When it asked the other chicks about it, they replied, "Don't even think about it-you can never become like that eagle." But the desire to fly was born within it.

Soon the hunter realized it was an eagle's egg and returned the young bird to the mountains. Watching other eagles, it learned to fly and began to soar majestically in the sky.

Many people today follow celebrities in cinema, politics, and sports. Like the eaglet, we often become like those we follow. But when the eaglet discovered its true identity and followed the eagles, it gained a new life and purpose.

The Call to Follow: In Matthew 9:9, Jesus called Matthew: "Follow Me." Matthew left his tax-collecting job immediately and followed Him, despite the loss he faced. In Luke 5:11, the fishermen left everything and followed Jesus.

Purpose of the call: To be with Him - Mark 3:14, To learn from His life - John 13, To continue His ministry - Matthew 4:19. They were no longer known as tax collectors and fishermen. Jesus gave them a new identity and a higher purpose - to become "fishers of men."

The Following God Expects: Faithful following - Deuteronomy 1:36, Obedience to His commands - Leviticus 18:4, Self-denial and daily surrender - Luke 9:23. Following Christ is not casual. It requires commitment, obedience, and sacrifice.

The Reward of Following: At first, even the disciples wondered, "What will we get?" (Matthew 19:27). But God is never unjust to forget sacrifice.

In the Old Testament:

- Joshua followed the Lord wholeheartedly, and God promised him the land he stepped on (Deuteronomy 1:36; Numbers 14:24).

In the New Testament:

- The disciples were promised thrones and eternal life (Matthew 19:27-29).
- Jesus said, "Whoever follows Me will not walk in darkness, but will have the light of life" (John 8:12).

Our senior Missionaries who faithfully followed Christ became instruments that shook nations and bore lasting fruit. Today, as we celebrate silver and golden jubilees, we remember the faithful servants who followed Him wholeheartedly.

FROM THE GENERAL SECRETARY...

Beloved Partners in God's Mission,

At the very heart of our faith stands not an institution, not a structure, nor even a strategy but a call. Before there were councils and conferences, jubilees and consultations, there was a voice that echoed along the shores of Galilee saying, "Follow Me." Christianity did not begin as an organization; it began as an invitation. The Church exists today because ordinary men and women responded to that extraordinary call. As we reflect on recent milestones, gatherings, and celebrations across our fields, we must return to this foundational truth: we are followers before we are leaders, disciples before we are directors, called servants before we are administrators. Everything we celebrate outwardly must be rooted in our inward obedience to Christ.

The call to follow Jesus is first an act of divine grace. The disciples did not qualify themselves; they were chosen. Fishermen casting nets and a tax collector seated at his booth were summoned into eternal purpose. "You did not choose Me, but I chose you" (John 15:16). These words dismantle pride and anchor us in gratitude. Our ministries across regions and states, our expanding engagements, and even our historic celebrations are testimonies not of human brilliance but of divine mercy. Mission originates in the heart of the Triune God, the Father sending the Son, the Son sending the Spirit, and the Spirit empowering the Church. When we follow Jesus, we align ourselves with this eternal redemptive movement. Therefore, our work is not merely organizational growth; it is participation in God's unfolding purpose.

The call to follow Christ is also disruptive. When Jesus said "Follow Me," nets were left behind and familiar securities were surrendered. Following Him rearranges priorities, Christ above career, Kingdom above comfort, obedience above convenience. This truth resonates deeply as we reflect on the Golden Jubilee Celebration of ministry in Gujarat from January 24-26. Fifty years of faithful witness stand as a testimony to those who responded to Christ's call with courage and perseverance. The gracious presence of the CNI Moderator, Rt. Rev. Dr. Paritosh Canning, the Deputy Moderator and Bishop of Kolkata, Rt. Rev. Dr. Silvanus Christian, and the Bishop of Gujarat Diocese added profound spiritual significance to the occasion. Their participation symbolized unity within the larger Body of Christ and reminded us that our mission is part of God's greater redemptive narrative. Jubilees are not merely celebrations of longevity; they are celebrations of obedience sustained over decades.

In the same spirit of thanksgiving, we rejoice in the Silver Jubilee Celebration of ministry in Chhattisgarh, marking twenty-five years of God's sustaining grace. These milestones represent countless prayers, unseen sacrifices, and steadfast commitment. They testify that when men and women respond to Christ's call wholeheartedly, He establishes and strengthens the work of their hands. As we celebrate these historic landmarks, we must remember that the same voice that called the pioneers continues to call us forward.

Yet the call of Christ is relational before it is functional. Scripture reminds us that Jesus appointed the twelve "that they might be with Him and that He might send them out" (Mark 3:14). Being precedes doing. Communion precedes commission. Intimacy precedes impact. In a season where we have successfully completed the National Planning Conference 2026, we are reminded that planning must always flow from prayer. Strategy without surrender becomes self-reliance. The Conference provided us with a valuable opportunity to evaluate our stewardship, discern emerging challenges, and align our direction for the coming years. But above all, it was a spiritual responsibility, an occasion to seek the mind of Christ together. Our confidence for the future rests not in the precision of our plans but in the faithfulness of our Lord.

Similarly, the FMPB Mission Consultation brought together leaders and representatives for deep reflection on the evolving landscape of ministry. In a rapidly changing socio-cultural context, where complexities increase and sensitivities deepen, we must remain biblically anchored and contextually wise. The Consultation was marked by thoughtful engagement and a shared commitment to ensure that our methods never overshadow our message, and our expansion never outpaces our discipleship. Such gatherings reaffirm that following Jesus requires continual discernment, humility, and unity.

However, the invitation to follow Jesus is inseparable from the cost of discipleship. "If anyone would come after Me, let him deny himself, take up his cross daily, and follow Me" (Luke 9:23). The cross is not symbolic decoration; it is the pattern of the Kingdom. Christ emptied Himself, humbled Himself, and became obedient unto death (Philippians 2:5-8). The mission of God advances not through self-promotion but through self-denial. In leadership and service, we must guard against subtle pride and the desire for recognition. The cross purifies motives and deepens authenticity. The effectiveness of our ministry is measured not by applause but by obedience.

The cost of discipleship also calls for endurance. The early Church grew amid opposition and hardship, entering the Kingdom through many tribulations (Acts 14:22). Even today, faithfulness requires resilience, courage, and unwavering trust. Yet it is precisely through perseverance that our witness gains credibility. Our gatherings and achievements stand on foundations laid by sacrificial service.

This spirit of shared commitment was evident during the SCAN Family Get-Together at MCC, where fellowship strengthened bonds and renewed hearts. Mission is sustained not only by vision but by community. When families gather in unity, when testimonies are shared and prayers are offered collectively, we experience afresh the beauty of the Body of Christ journeying together.

As we entered the sacred Lenten season, we commenced 1000 hours of prayer for the Nation beginning on 18th February. This initiative reflects our conviction that mission is ultimately spiritual before it is strategic. Prayer aligns our hearts with God's purposes and renews our dependence upon Him. Lent calls us back to the pathway of the cross-self-examination, repentance, and deeper surrender. Through sustained intercession, we seek God's mercy and guidance for our land, trusting that transformation begins on our knees.

Even as we celebrate and pray, we look ahead with anticipation and request your earnest prayers for the forthcoming staff gatherings and ministry programs in Andhra Pradesh during the month of March.

These are not routine engagements but opportunities for spiritual strengthening, unity, and renewed commitment. May these gatherings deepen fellowship, sharpen vision, and release fresh anointing for the tasks entrusted to us.

Beloved partners, the call invites us, the cross refines us, and commitment sustains us. Following Jesus is not a momentary decision but a lifelong alignment of heart and will. Success must never replace surrender. Expansion must never substitute devotion. Structures must never overshadow spirituality. At the close of his life, Paul did not speak of accomplishments but declared, "I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith." May that be our testimony also.

As we move forward into new seasons of ministry, may we remain anchored in this unchanging truth: we are called by Christ, shaped by His cross, and sustained by faithful commitment. May our movement be known not only for its reach but for its rootedness, not only for its growth but for its godliness. And may the voice that once called fishermen continue to echo in our hearts today, drawing us ever closer in obedience.

"Lord, we will follow You."

Yours in steadfast devotion to His Mission,

Rev. Vijay Prasanna Isaac

“CALLED TO FOLLOW”

FROM TAX COLLECTOR TO APOSTLE

As Jesus passed on from there, He saw a man named Mathew sitting at the tax office. And He Said to him, “Follow Me.” So, he arose and followed Him. Matthew 9:9.

... “Come with me and become my disciple!”
t4t (Translation for Translators)

“Make sure of your commitment to Jesus Christ, and seek to follow Him every day. Don't be swayed by the false values and goals of this world, but put Christ and His will first in everything you do.” - Billy Graham

Jesus Calling Mathew the tax collector teaches that mercy triumphs over judgement. Mathew, also known as Levi, was a tax collector who became one of Jesus' twelve apostles and is traditionally recognized as the author of the Gospel of Matthew.

Background

Mathew was a tax collector in Capernaum, a profession that was despised by the Jewish people during biblical times. Tax collectors were often viewed as traitors because they worked for the Roman authorities and were known for extorting money from their fellow Jews. They typically collected taxes on goods and income, often demanding more than what was owed to enrich themselves.

Mathew, who was living a life that went against God's purpose, was never truly happy. Because of his selfish heart, he couldn't love anyone. More than anything, being labelled a sinner by others made him feel as though even God had abandoned him. He was tormented by guilt, believing he had been rejected not only by people, but by God Himself.

In God's choices in the Bible, the exception seems to be the rule. “Who could have predicted that God would choose not Esau but Jacob, surprisingly in the life of Levi/Mathew

The Gospel of Mark (Mk.2:14-17) teaches us that Mathew's name was originally Levi. Levi was identified as a Galilean and the son of Alphaeus. He was a tax collector and served Herod Antipas, the tetrarch of Galilee. This meant that Levi was not popular. As a Jewish tax collector, Levi would have been considered traitor and unworthy to be chosen to follow Jesus by many Jews. Of course, once Levi accepts the call to follow Jesus, he is known as only Mathew, meaning “Yahweh's gift.”

Being Called by God...

Most People simply misunderstand the Call to ministry. The Call of God to ministry is laden with fears, false expectations and unrealistic benchmarks. It is no wonder that over the history of the Church it has regularly defaulted to a simplistic expression of Calling. Simply said we make it too hard to understand and respond. We don't need a burning bush and a voice from heaven. The Call of God must be spiritual. It is not a career choice, a thought process, a family trade or an alternative for those with nothing else better to do.

Follow...

Following Jesus leads to a new community and identity. The call leads to a life of service, forgiveness, joy and companion with God, contrasting with the burdens of sin and judgement though it may involve persecution. “Follow Me...” 21 times in 12 different conversations in the Bible where Jesus commands “Follow me” - is Personal, demands complete surrender and transformed lives, pulling people from their old, often sinful, ways into a new life of purpose. Jesus calls those whom the society rejects showing He came for the spiritually sick.

Why follow Him?

He is the Ultimate Authority, the Author and Finisher of our Faith

Mathew 19:27 Then Peter said in reply, “Lo, we have left everything and followed you. What then shall we have? Jesus said to them, “...you who have followed me will also sit on twelve thrones... v.29 And everyone who has left houses or brothers or sisters or father or mother or children or lands, for my names' sake, will receive a hundred-fold and inherit eternal life.

First, “Follow me” is a command from Jesus to change the direction of our life:

“As Jesus went on from there, He saw a man named Mathew sitting at the tax collector's booth, “Follow me.” He told him, and Mathew got up and followed Him.” Mathew had lived a life chasing after money. But now, Jesus commands him to stop following money and start following Him. Yes, we all need money - but money is just a means, not the purpose. The purpose of our life must be the eternal God - Jesus. Here we see the choice of following Him. What do I mean by the choice? I mean, Jesus Christ's sovereign choice. Christ's choice of US precedes our choice of Him. He said to His Apostles, of whom Mathew was one in John 15:16, “You did not choose me, but I chose you. The son is choosing to reveal the Father to Mathew. Christ's choice comes first. The initiative in the story is with who? It is Jesus Christ. He comes to Mathew, he walks by and he speaks to Mathew, “Follow me,” the initiative is with Christ. The same way in our life too, whatever may be our past life but by his sovereign choice, and it is God's choice, so we are in His ministry, as a useful instrument. But all of this is of grace, not of merit. The calling of us all depends not on the merits of our own righteousness but on his sheer generosity.” what is the purpose of your life? It should be Jesus. If you hear the voice of Jesus saying, “Follow me,” and that you turn your life's purpose and direction toward Him starting right now.

Second, “Follow me” is an invitation to become a disciple of Jesus

Verse 9, “As Jesus went on from there, He saw a man named Mathew sitting at the tax collector's booth, and here is the call, "Follow me," He told him, and Mathew got up and followed Him. Jesus was calling Mathew to walk with Him, to live closely with Him, to learn everything from Him, and to become like Him. What an incredible blessing it is to be with Jesus so close and learn from Him day by day. To enter deeper into His love, sacrifice, service, humility and power it is truly amazing. In the same way, as we follow Jesus' voice, our character and our lives begin to bear fruit for the glory of God. Jesus is also inviting you and me - "Follow me."

Third, "Follow me" is a promise from Jesus that He will take responsibility for our lives when we follow Him.

Jesus is the almighty God. That means He has the power and authority to take care of us. He promises to help us to bear abundant fruit of the Holy Spirit. He strengthens us, so that we can serve God powerfully. So, when we choose to follow Jesus, we can trust in His power that makes our lives fruitful.

Following Jesus till the end of our life - In our Personal life and in our Ministerial life. How did Mathew respond to Jesus words?

"Mathew got up and followed Him." What a simple sentence-but how powerful it is. Mathew heard Jesus' invitation and didn't hesitate for a moment. He didn't wrestle with doubts. Even though following Jesus meant abandoning his job as a tax collector and possibly choosing a life of poverty, he didn't struggle with the decision. But still, he didn't hold back. He immediately got up right there and followed Jesus.

What an amazing act of Commitment. How could Mathew make that decision?

It was because he fully trusted Jesus. He felt

Jesus' love for Him! He believed that Jesus could transform his life and lead him into true happiness. That's why he was able to follow Him without delay.

Are you ready follow Jesus immediately, just like Mathew did?

Everyone had pointed fingers at him, calling him a sinner. But Jesus called him to be His disciple and through that call, Mathew began a new life in Christ. His new life was beautifully shown when he invited Jesus to his home for dinner.

The man who had once lived for himself was now living to give and to serve others. What an incredible moment that was! Jesus came with His disciples and many other tax collectors also came. The house that had once felt so empty was now filled with guests, surrounded by so many people, his heart was filled with joy and happiness. This is true in our lives too. The joy of following Him, leaving everything for His sake and follow Him and to do His will for His bigger purpose.

No turning back - Luke 9: 57 - 62 - v.57 a man said to him, "I will follow you wherever you go." v.59 To another he said, "Follow me" But he said, "Lord, let me first go and bury my father." v.61 Another said, "I will follow you, Lord, but let me first say farewell to those at my home."

As a disciple, he would have to deny himself, Mathew 16:24 Then Jesus told his disciples "If any man would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me."

John 8:12 Whoever follows me will not walk in darkness

Life as Jesus' disciple - Undoubtedly got involved with important tasks during Jesus' ministry, His calling is actually the only story about him in Scripture. Mathew silently accompanies Jesus and isn't often mentioned specifically. But that doesn't mean his role wasn't important. He was likely a captivated narrator, focusing more on what was happening around him.

Life after Jesus' ascension - An apostle, continued to work with the other apostles to share Christ with others after Jesus returned to heaven. Early centuries he travels to Persia, Macedonia, Syria, Ethiopia. He worked among the Gentiles as an Evangelist, telling them the wonderful news of Jesus. "He afterwards travelled to Parthia, where he met his death, being slain with the sword, at about 60 years of age." And not only was Mathew a faithful apostle, carrying on the ministry of Christ, but he also wrote down his account of the Gospel story, bringing believers together for ages to read-the Gospel of Mathew.

Hurdles in following Jesus' voice and obeying Him...

Internal Hurdles - (Personal Struggles): Fear and Insecurity, The "Flesh" and "Pride" - the temptation to rely on oneself rather than God. Attachment to Worldly Things - desire for material possessions, comfort and personal pleasure can hinder total commitment. Lack of Priorities - Difficulty in maintaining focus.

External Hurdles - Opposition and Persecution - Social pressure from others. Negative influences in society and peer pressure that discourages following a righteous path. Misunderstanding the cost - the commitment requires sacrificing personal comfort, which is difficult to accept.

Overcoming the Hurdles

Shifting Perspective - Viewing hurdles as opportunities for growth, Inner Trans- formation - Developing spiritual strength through prayer, meditation, and reliance on divine grace.

"Counting the Cost" - Acknowledging that while the path is difficult, it is Ultimately more rewarding than not following him.

A big takeaway from Mathew's life - is that no lifestyle is too hard to change. A tax collector like Mathew was like the scum of the earth in the eyes of his fellow Jews. He gave up all to become a follower of Jesus and one of Jesus' closest companions. When he made the decision to follow Jesus, his life began to bear fruit. And Jesus desires the same for us. He wants us to bear much fruit as we follow Him. "Follow me." I pray that we would hear this voice of Jesus and live as His true disciples till the end.

Closing Words

Jesus doesn't care how badly we've messed up. No matter what we've done, we're equal in His eyes. He loves us, sees our potential and wants to be our closest friend. We don't have to be popular. We don't have to be smart. We don't have to be liked by anyone. But that doesn't make us unusable to God. Often, the result of God changing our lives for the better can glorify Him even more. And when we do accept that call, we can allow ourselves to grow and be changed. Mathew's life was transformed by this event and he eventually became a powerful witness for Jesus. We too, can become a great witness for Jesus, if we let Him lead us.

"God isn't looking for people of great faith, but for individuals ready to follow Him."

OVERFLOWING BLESSING TO THE NATION

Dear Brothers and sisters

Moved by a God given vision, FMPB stepped out in faith on a bold and transformational mission journey when it opened its first mission field in 1967. Today, we stand in awe as we witness lives transformed, communities touched, and the unmistakable hand of God at work through FMPB in various mission fields across the nation.

God enabled us to experience the Malto miracle, Santal miracle, Punjab miracle, and South Gujarat miracle. These are visible and tangible signs of God's power on God's land and God's blessings on God's people. These miracles are possible because God's presence is with us. We are confident that more such miracles touching the entire nation will follow in the days to come.

South Gujarat Miracle - 50 Years of Transformation

Fifty years ago, God enabled FMPB to set its footprints in Gujarat. It was a bold and significant decision to initiate mission work in a distant State where the language and culture were vastly different. Today, as we celebrate the Golden Jubilee of the ministry in Gujarat, we witness incredible impact among tribal communities. What a powerful milestone!

Through dedication, perseverance, and prayer, the ministry has brought lasting spiritual, social and physical transformation, particularly among the Kukna, Warli, Vasava, Bhil, and Gamit people groups. It is remarkable that the Lord enabled FMPB to establish nearly 450 churches and congregations in Gujarat, and we praise God for this.

True mission raises leaders, transforms families, and impacts generations with hope and renewed purpose. When we plant, God gives increase. When we surrender, God expands. When we trust, God transforms.

Go to the Dangs district and the surrounding tribal regions of South Gujarat, where FMPB has been working for the last 50 years, and see for yourself how God has used FMPB to bring total transformation among tribal communities. The impact is emphatic and resounding.

Families whose parents never had an opportunity to attend school now see their children thriving as first generation graduates and post graduates. Through the FMPB run St. Thomas English School, many have risen to become doctors, MLAs, Panchayat presidents, engineers, teachers, government servants, nurses, and business leaders. More than that, as God's children, they have found meaning and purpose in their lives.

Our hearts rejoice and thank God that six students from the FMPB run St. Thomas English School have been admitted to MBBS programs. These are first generation tribal students who were nurtured in our hostel from KG to 12th standard and studied in our school. Some of them came with their parents and shared their joyful testimonies during the Golden Jubilee celebrations. This is the Lord's doing. From a small beginning to a transformational and impactful movement, the South Gujarat miracle is simply astounding.

Golden Jubilee Celebrations

What started as a small beginning has flourished into vibrant and impactful work, bearing much fruit across generations. The impact is not just numerical—it is generational and transformational. Psalm 78 reminds us that we must tell the next generation the great things the Lord has done. This is what the FMPB Gujarat Golden Jubilee Celebration from 24 to 26 January 2026 is all about.

It was truly a landmark event marked by spiritual depth, unity, and celebration. The presence of the CNI Moderator, Most Rev. Dr. Paritosh Canning, and the CNI Bishop of Gujarat, Rt. Rev. Dr. Silvans S. Christian, brought great joy and honour to the gathering. Both leaders delivered inspiring and challenging messages from God's Word, encouraging the congregation to remain steadfast in faith and committed to the mission entrusted to them.

The occasion was further enriched by the participation of numerous church leaders, mission leaders, missionaries, and thousands of families from Gujarat mission fields, whose presence reflected a shared vision and collective commitment to God's work. The celebration indeed honoured the past, strengthened the present, and ignited a vision for a future illuminated by unwavering faith, wholehearted service, and God's divine calling.

Adding to the significance of the celebration was the active involvement of the FMPB President, Vice President, Treasurer, General Secretary, and Executive Committee members, who joined the event on all three days. During his address to the students and youth, the FMPB President passionately challenged them to discern their God given calling and life purpose. He exhorted them to excel in their studies and to set their vision high—encouraging them to aspire to become IAS and IPS officers, ministers and chief ministers, vice chancellors, and scientists—urging them to actively contribute to nation building initiatives and serve society with excellence and integrity.

Thank you, Moderator. Thank you, Bishop.

During these Golden Jubilee events, 50 missionaries based in Gujarat, including five women, were ordained by the Bishop of Gujarat, and 50 committed young people were commissioned as evangelists. To be a great blessing to society, we will be starting new mission fields, a new English medium school, a nursing college, two hostels, and a leadership training institute in Gujarat. To mark this, foundation stones were laid by the Moderator, the Bishop, the FMPB President, and the FMPB General Secretary. We sincerely thank the CNI Moderator and the CNI Bishop of Gujarat for their overwhelming support to FMPB.

We are glad that FMPB and CNI have a major partnership in missions, and accordingly, 210 churches were integrated with the CNI Gujarat Diocese by FMPB a few years ago to take the mission forward in partnership. We want to continue and enlarge this partnership in building the mission.

What Are You Doing for Others?

Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., Nobel Peace Prize laureate and civil rights leader, said, “Life’s most persistent and urgent question is, ‘What are you doing for others?’” His words remind us that a self-centred life is incomplete, and that true fulfilment is found in service beyond oneself. This principle has been at the heart of FMPB’s ministry for many years and remains central to its work throughout the nation.

We are fully convinced that a nation is strong when it cares for the weak; a nation becomes rich when it cares for the poor; a nation becomes invincible when it cares for the vulnerable; a nation becomes noble when it upholds moral and spiritual values in the lives of its people. This is the reason FMPB cares for the vulnerable and upholds spiritual and moral values. We will continue to be involved in transforming the nation with heavenly values.

Well Done, Missionaries!

We gratefully acknowledge the noble work of all the missionaries who came to Gujarat and built this mission with dedication and sacrifice. It was the vision of Bro. Emil Jebasingh, then General Secretary of FMPB, and Bro. Eby Sundarraj, then Field Director of North India, who had a large vision to start mission fields in various states of North India, including Gujarat.

We thank God for the pioneering missionaries to Gujarat including Bro. S. D. Ponraj, Bro. Ebenezer Dasan, Bro. Paulraj, Bro. Ben Oliver, Bro. Israel Devadoss, Bro. Johnson Barnabas, Miss Mary Stella, Miss. Mary Antonyammal and Rev. S. Arulraj, Mr. Nesamani, Mr. Victor Murugesan, and Mr. Nathaniel Logaraj, who initiated the mission work. We are also grateful to the pioneering Bible translators Mr. Alaichamy Paul and Mr. S. Rajendran. We also acknowledge the remarkable leadership provided by Bro. Patrick Joshua, Bro. Sam Kamalesan, Bro. P. Samuel, Dr. Chandrasekar, and other leaders in taking the mission forward in Gujarat.

Building Leaders, Building the Nation

God has called FMPB to raise a generation of God’s children to impact society and the nation with biblical values. If we succeed in this, the nation succeeds.

Emboldened by the mission work in Gujarat, Jharkhand, Punjab, and other places, we can boldly say that FMPB envisions leaders emerging from tribal communities and underprivileged societies—men and women shaped by faith, integrity, and courage. We firmly believe that from these communities will emerge great and noble leaders like Mahatma Gandhi and Mother Teresa, Nelson Mandela, and Martin Luther King Jr., Leymah Gbowee of Liberia, and Bishop Desmond Tutu. If FMPB faithfully invests in shaping character before success, service before status, and truth before ambition, then transformed lives will transform communities-and transformed communities will bless the nation.

God has called the FMPB movement as well as each one of us to be an overflowing blessing to the nation. The Psalmist, in Psalm 23:5, declares with quiet confidence and deep gratitude: "My cup overflows." FMPB should look beyond its footprint of 300 mission fields; rather, FMPB needs to have an enlarged vision of impacting the whole nation, working hand in hand with the Church.

Overflowing Blessing to the Nation

Friends, the purpose of overflow is never accumulation. God does not bless us so that we may hoard His gifts. An overflowing cup is meant to spill into other lives. It is a call-to become channels of grace, compassion, love, and hope.

From Periyamalai to Peint mission field, from Punjab to Gujarat, and from Maltos to Santhals, God is quietly yet powerfully writing stories of hope, healing, and restoration-often unseen by the world, but never unnoticed by heaven.

Be willing to go and heal the sick.

Be willing to pray for the nation, for the moral values, for its leaders.

Be willing to go and embrace the poor and the downtrodden.

Be willing to speak peace, non-violence, and love.

Be willing to share the Gospel where doors are open.

Be willing to lift society out of despair and discouragement.

Be willing to share your resources sacrificially and joyfully

Be willing to show them-through words and actions-God's love.

Together, we are building stories-stories of hope rising in the midst of despair, stories of goodness shining in a world of brokenness, stories of mercy triumphing over judgment, and stories of celebration, healing, and restoration.

Aligning with God's Divine Vision

FMPB is taking conscious steps to become a 'roof tile breaker' so that the disadvantaged and underprivileged can rise and leap with joy-just as the paralysed man was brought before Jesus through the roof. It requires love, vision, commitment, and good governance to lift up the poor and disadvantaged in our society.

FMPB is aligning itself boldly with God's divine vision-the establishment of His Kingdom here on earth. A Kingdom built on righteousness. A Kingdom anchored in justice. A Kingdom marked by compassion, dignity, and eternal life.

Your availability matters. Your obedience matters. Your involvement matters.

When your cup overflows, fill someone else's cup. Be an overflowing blessing to the nation. Go or send, be involved, and live out God's call.

Mr. JOHN SAMUEL, President - FMPB

Day One - 24th January 2026

Silvassa Field, Karchond

The Golden Jubilee celebrations commenced on 24th January 2026 at the Silvassa Field Karchond, with the first-day meeting held from 10:00 AM to 4:00 PM. The program began with an opening prayer by the field missionary, invoking God's presence and blessing upon the historic occasion.

This was followed by worship led by the choir team, drawing the congregation into heartfelt praise and thanksgiving. The Sahyadri region missionaries extended a warm welcome to the guests by honoring them with garlands and mementos. Senior retired missionaries shared their ministry experiences, bearing witness to God's sustaining grace through decades of faithful service.

The Aravalli regional Secretary presented the history of the Gujarat ministry, recalling the challenges, sacrifices, and milestones of the past fifty years. A significant highlight of the day was the foundation stone-laying ceremony for upcoming mission initiatives, including a Children's Hostel in Ahwa, LTI in Khargam, and CTC in Khargam.

To commemorate this blessed journey, the Golden Jubilee Commemorative Book was dedicated by the honored guests. Nearly 4,500 believers gathered to glorify the name of the Lord. The presence of missionaries who had served in Gujarat, retired servants of God, organizational leaders, and missionaries from across India added great spiritual richness to the celebration.

The CNI Bishop and Deputy Moderator, Rt. Rev. Dr. Silvans S. Christian, graced the occasion as Chief Guest and delivered an anointed message from God's Word. The first day concluded joyfully with a love feast, fostering fellowship and thanksgiving.

In the evening, a solemn Ordination Service was held at Bonta Church, during which 50 missionaries and evangelists were ordained. The service was prayerfully conducted by Rt. Rev. Dr. Silvans S. Christian, making it a deeply spiritual and memorable occasion. Praise be to God for this sacred moment.

Day Two - 25th January 2026

St. Thomas English School, Jhawda

The second day of the Golden Jubilee Celebration was held at St. Thomas English School, Jhawda, and was marked by worship, thanksgiving, and reflection on God's faithfulness through educational and mission ministries.

The day began with a Sunday worship service, filled with praise, worship, confession, and prayer. The choir and students actively participated, creating a spiritually uplifting atmosphere. Messages shared during the service emphasized Christian character, dedication, and the responsibility of nurturing future generations in faith and discipline.

FMPB President Mr. John Samuel delivered an inspiring address, encouraging students and young people to lead lives rooted in godly values and excellence. His message served as a guiding vision for transforming education into a ministry that shapes character and faith.

A special felicitation was offered by the Local MLA, Shri Mohan Bhai Kokani, who acknowledged the significant role of St. Thomas English School and FMPB in contributing to regional and social development.

Two major milestones marked the concluding moments of the day:

Inauguration of Museum, established to preserve the history of FMPB's ministry and the rich culture of the tribal communities of Gujarat.

Love Feast, symbolizing unity, fellowship, and thanksgiving to God.

Day Three - 26th January 2026

Fokdi, Netrang

The final day of the Golden Jubilee celebration was held at Fokdi, Netrang. As it was the Republic Day the program began with flag hoisting by FMPB President Mr. John Samuel, followed by a solemn procession led by the Moderator and Deputy Moderator. The dove-releasing ceremony symbolized peace, hope, and the guidance of the Holy Spirit.

Felicitation was offered by the Vice President and Treasurer, and the General Secretary, Rev. Vijay Isaac, delivered the welcome address. The CNI Moderator shared a challenging and inspiring message, calling the Church to renewed faithfulness and commitment. The celebration concluded with a foundation stone-laying ceremony, signifying new beginnings in mission and service.

Conclusion

The FMPB Gujarat Golden Jubilee Celebration stood as a powerful testimony to God's unfailing grace over the past fifty years. With hearts full of gratitude, the people of God praised Him for His guidance, protection, and abundant blessings. All glory, honor, and thanksgiving belong to our Lord, who has faithfully led this mission and will continue to guide it in the years to come. "Thus far the Lord has helped us." (1 Samuel 7:12).

Missionary Dedication

On the evening of 18th January 2026, the sanctuary of Alpha and Omega Church, Macha Bolarum, was filled with gratitude, reverence, and renewed passion as the church hosted the Missionary Dedication Program.

The program opened with a moving life testimony by the missionary, who shared her divine calling, faith journey, and the mission challenges she continues to face in Gujarat. This was followed by a powerful and encouraging message from the Pastor, reminding the church of its responsibility to support missions through prayer, giving, and obedience to God's call.

The highlight of the evening was the Missionary Dedication Ceremony, led by five pastors. With prayerful hands laid and surrendered hearts, the missionary was dedicated to God's service.

The evening concluded as a blessed and memorable time, leaving the church encouraged, challenged, and united in purpose to pray, support, and participate in God's mission to the nations.

Golden Jubilee Ordination Service

Celebrating a Sacred Calling and the Empowerment of Women

On the evening of 24th January, as part of the Golden Jubilee celebrations, a solemn and grace-filled ordination service was held at Bonta Church. The service was graciously led by Rt. Rev. Dr. Silvans Christian, CNI Bishop and Deputy Moderator of the Church of North India.

During this historic service, 50 missionaries were ordained for ministry: 33 Deacons and 17 Presbyters. Significantly, among the 33 Deacons ordained, five were women missionaries, all faithfully serving in FMPB Gujarat. Their ordination stands as a visible sign of God's inclusive call and the Church's obedience to the leading of the Holy Spirit.

This sacred moment powerfully affirmed that God calls and commissions His servants not by human limitations, but by divine purpose. While Women's Day celebrates the dignity, rights, and achievements of women in society, this ordination went deeper—it was a spiritual empowerment, acknowledging women as chosen vessels in God's redemptive mission. The ordination of women missionaries during the Golden Jubilee bears witness to the truth that in Christ, ministry is entrusted according to calling, faithfulness, and obedience.

As Scripture reminds us:

"In the last days, God says, I will pour out my Spirit on all people. Your sons and daughters will prophesy." Acts 2:17

“There is neither male nor female, for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” Galatians 3:28

This historic occasion will be remembered as a milestone where faith, obedience, and gender-inclusive ministry came together for the glory of God and the growth of His Kingdom.

Prayer Points

- 1. Thanksgiving for God's Call: We thank God for the Golden Jubilee celebrations and for calling men and women into His ministry.
- 2. Empowerment of Women in Ministry: Pray that the five women missionaries may be continually filled with the Holy Spirit, courage, wisdom, and grace as they serve God's people.
- 3. Protection and Strength: Pray for God's protection over women servants of God as they minister in challenging fields, and for strength in times of opposition or discouragement.
- 4. Fruitful and Faithful Service: Pray that all 50 ordained servants may bear lasting fruit in their ministries and serve with humility, love, and Christ-like compassion.
- 5. Raising Future Women Leaders: Pray that many young women may hear God's call, step forward in faith, and be nurtured as leaders in the Church and mission fields.

From Mission Field to Mission Force

A Historic Milestone in the Palamaner Mission Field, Chittoor Region, Andhra Pradesh

We praise God for His mighty work in the Palamaner Mission Field. On 04 January 2026, at Appinapalli Church, two families from among our own converts joyfully came forward to sponsor two FMPB missionaries serving in North India. The missionary dedication ceremony marked a significant and historic moment for the Palamaner field.

Mr. & Mrs. Viswanath sponsoring a missionary serving in Kherwara, Rajasthan

Mr. Krishnamoorthy sponsoring a missionary serving at the Shirpur Hostel, Maharashtra. This event stands as a wonderful and meaningful milestone in the history of the FMPB ministry. In missions, the transition from being a mission field—one that receives support—to becoming a mission force—one that gives support—represents a profound spiritual breakthrough. On this day, we witnessed a historic shift as two local believers, who themselves were nurtured through the mission, voluntarily embraced the responsibility of financially supporting missionaries.

We record this event in the history of the Palamaner Field as a testimony to God's faithfulness. We prayerfully believe that this first fruit will inspire many others to recognize their role in the Great Commission, ensuring that the light of the gospel continues to spread from the Palamaner field to the ends of the earth.

FMPB's MISSION & VISION PROGRAMME

in the State of Kuwait

From 14th January to 02nd February of this year, by the immense grace of God and with the approval of the Executive Committee of the Friends Missionary Prayer Band (FMPB), the servants of God, Rev. David. P and Rev. S. Emmanuel Ranjit Singh, were granted the privilege of carrying out ministry in the State of Kuwait.

The ministry began on 14th January'26 with a consultative meeting with FMPB leaders in Kuwait and continued until 1st February. During this period, messages were delivered in 27 churches. A short film highlighting various ethnic people groups was presented, followed by a message emphasizing the urgency of the mission. In every aspect of the ministry, we clearly experienced God's guidance and the leading of Holy Spirit.

Over the course of these days, we visited 18 homes alongside the missionaries to encourage and strengthen them with a renewed burden and urgency for mission work. These visits served to encourage the families and deepen their commitment to prayer and active participation in the FMPB ministry, embracing the motto "Go or Send." Additionally, the Lord graciously granted us opportunities to host two teen meetings, one youth meeting, and one FMPB Family Meet.

The encouragement and wholehearted cooperation of the Kuwait FMPB leaders have been invaluable throughout the entire program, from the planning stages until now. At the end of each church service, a ministry stall was arranged with introductory materials about the movement, books containing missionary biographies, and pen drives with visionary songs, which were shared with the congregation.

By God's leading, the following commitments and decisions were made:

- 7 new leaders have been identified and willing to serve in three areas with shared responsibility for FMPB.
- 11 families pledged to support Missionaries.
- 26 families committed to supporting children.
- 11 families pledged support toward the church construction project.
- 3 families committed to fully sponsor the construction of a Church.

In addition, God enabled many Churches, families and individuals joyfully gave offering for FMPB's mission work. All glory be to HIM alone.
