Called to Surrender

Therefore, I urge you,
brothers and sisters,
in view of God's mercy, to offer your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and pleasing to God—this is your true and proper worship. Romans 12:1

Emptying to Be Filled

The hymn “I Surrender All” was written in 1896 by Judson W. Van DeVenter, an American art teacher who wrestled deeply between pursuing a career in the arts and yielding to God’s call for full-time ministry. Though gifted in music—able to sing, compose, and play 13 kinds of instruments—he resisted that inner call for many years. While teaching in Ohio, he finally chose to surrender his personal ambitions to God. That decisive moment brought him profound peace and gave birth to this timeless hymn, expressing complete consecration. His friend Winfield S. Weeden composed the tune, and together they released the hymn. Such was Weeden’s love for it that its words were later inscribed on his tombstone.

This hymn beautifully echoes our theme: “A Call to Surrender” (Romans 12:1). True surrender means acknowledging that we can no longer depend on our own strength or desires but must yield entirely to God. As taught in 1 Thessalonians 5:23, man is made of spirit, soul, and body. When Paul urges us to present our bodies as a living sacrifice, he is calling for the offering of our whole being—nothing held back.

In the Old Testament, sacrifices had to be without blemish, the very best offered to a holy God. Such offerings were acts of true worship. Today, God no longer requires animal sacrifices; instead, He desires that we offer ourselves. As Romans 6:6 reminds us, it is not our “old man,” bound by sin, that God accepts, but our renewed life—transformed and submitted to His authority. We are called, as in 1 Peter 2:5, to be a holy priesthood offering spiritual sacrifices that are pleasing to Him.

The life of Abraham stands as a powerful example of surrender. When asked to offer Isaac, the son he loved dearly, Abraham obeyed. Even before the act was completed, he had already surrendered Isaac in his heart. His obedience demonstrated that his love for God surpassed all else. As Scripture reminds us in 1 Samuel 15:22, obedience is better than sacrifice.

D. L. Moody once observed that unlike lifeless animal sacrifices, a “living sacrifice” has the tendency to crawl off the altar when surrender becomes difficult seems futile, or becomes uncomfortable. This is our daily struggle. Yet, each time we willingly lay down what we cherish—our plans, desires, and comforts—we grow stronger in our walk with God.

When Abraham surrendered everything, he experienced God as Jehovah-Jireh, the Lord who provides. In the same way, as we empty ourselves, God fills us with His presence and purpose. Philippians 2:7-8 says Jesus Christ emptied himself to the extreme even a death on the cross. Let us join in that spirit of surrender, offering every part of our lives to Him, experiencing His faithfulness, and revealing Him to a world in need.

FROM THE GENERAL SECRETARY...

Dearest beloved prayer partners and co-labourers in God's mission,

The month of April once again draws our hearts to the central proclamation of our faith: Christ is risen! The empty tomb stands not merely as a historical reality, but as a divine summons, a compelling call to surrender in the light of the risen Lord, echoing across generations and inviting every believer to yield wholeheartedly to the Lordship of Christ.

At this significant juncture, I am deeply overwhelmed with gratitude to God for His abounding faithfulness and sustaining grace as I complete one year in the responsibility entrusted to me. This journey has not been without its pressures, indeed, hard pressed on every side, yet I have been upheld, not by human strength, but by His unfailing presence and immeasurable grace. In the midst of these demands, the interactions, fellowship, and shared burdens with fellow missionaries have proven to be a profound source of encouragement and spiritual enrichment.

I take this opportunity to express my heartfelt appreciation to each one of you for your steadfast prayers, wise counsel, and gracious encouragement, all of which have strengthened and guided me through the past year.

The resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ is not merely a declaration of victory over death; it is a divine claim upon our lives. The One who conquered the grave now calls us to surrender our hearts, ambitions, plans, and futures to His sovereign will. The resurrection, therefore, is not only to be celebrated but it demands a response.

Surrender Begins at the Empty Tomb

When the women approached the tomb in sorrow, they departed in awe and obedience. When the disciples encountered the risen Lord, their fear gave way to surrender. The resurrection transformed hesitant followers into courageous witnesses. That same risen Lord stands before us today not visibly, yet unmistakably calling us to relinquish our self-will and to live under His divine authority.

Surrender is often misconstrued as weakness, loss, or defeat. Yet in the economy of God's kingdom, surrender is the gateway to life, purpose, and enduring fruitfulness. The risen Christ does not coerce allegiance; He graciously invites it. His pierced hands remind us that He surrendered first yielding fully to the Father's will, even unto death. Our surrender is but a response to His.

The Risen Lord and the Reordered Life

Following the resurrection, Jesus did not merely comfort His disciples; He reordered their priorities. Peter was not confronted with his failures, but with a question of love: "Do you love Me?" The resurrection restored him, yet it also recommissioned him. Love for the risen Christ became both the foundation of his ministry and the driving force behind his sacrifice.

In the same way, the risen Lord calls us beyond superficial religiosity into radical, wholehearted devotion. He beckons us to surrender our comfort for His mission, our security for His calling, our reputation for His name, and our future for His kingdom. Such surrender is not confined to a moment of emotion; it is a daily, deliberate posture of the heart.

Surrender and Mission Are Inseparable

Every post-resurrection encounter carried with it a commission: "Go and tell...", "As the Father has sent Me, I am sending you," and "You will be My witnesses." The message of the risen Lord is inseparably intertwined with His mission.

Surrender, therefore, is not merely personal but it is profoundly missional. A surrendered life cannot remain passive; it becomes a channel through which the life of Christ flows to the world. When we yield to Him, He leads us into places we would not naturally choose, among people we might not otherwise reach, and into ministries we could never have envisioned.

Indeed, the history of missions is a testimony of surrendered lives of men and women so captivated by the reality of the risen Christ that they held nothing back from Him.

The Cost and the Glory of Surrender

The call to surrender is undeniably costly. It requires the crucifixion of self-interest and the relinquishment of personal control. Yet the resurrection assures us that whatever is surrendered to God is never lost but it is transformed. Just as the cross culminated in the crown, so surrender leads to glory, both in present fruitfulness and in eternal reward.

The risen Lord still asks, "Why do you seek the living among the dead?" Why do we persist in clinging to lifeless ambitions, securities, and traditions when vibrant fellowship with Christ is freely offered?

A Call to the Church Today

In a generation marked by uncertainty, distraction, and spiritual complacency, the call to surrender resounds with renewed urgency. The church does not need more observers; it needs disciples who have laid everything at the feet of the risen Lord.

Our ministries, strategies, and structures will yield lasting fruit only when they emerge from hearts fully surrendered to Christ. Programs cannot substitute surrender. Efficiency cannot replace obedience. Activity can never replace intimacy with the risen Savior.

As we celebrate Resurrection Sunday this month, may we move beyond the proclamation, “Christ is risen,” to the lived reality, “Christ reigns as Lord over my life.”

Our Prayer and Commitment

May this resurrection season usher us into deeper consecration. Let us re-examine our callings, our priorities, and our hidden allegiances. Let us ask with honesty and humility:

Is there anything I am withholding from the Lord who gave everything for me?

The risen Christ stands among us, speaking peace and revealing His wounds. He calls us not merely to affirm His resurrection, but to embody its power through lives wholly yielded to Him.

As we conclude, I draw your attention to a significant spiritual initiative, the 1000 Hours of Prayer for our Nation. This is far more than a program; it is a clarion call to intentional, united intercession in these critical times. I deeply appreciate your continued prayers for Rev. Gilbert Williams and the PREM Department team for their sincere and tireless efforts in mobilizing this movement of prayer.

I also urge you to faithfully uphold the following needs:

- ◆ The urgent requirement of dedicated teachers in our schools,
- ◆ The need for volunteers and interns to strengthen the ministry at the Headquarters,
- ◆ The preparations for the Tamil Nadu Annual Conference (21–24 May 2026 at Bethel), that it may be marked by spiritual renewal and divine direction,
- ◆ And the interviews scheduled on April 30 and May 2 in Manipur and Assam, that God would raise faithful labourers for His harvest.

Furthermore, the Executive Committee has prayerfully appointed two new Field Secretaries - Rev. N. Rajadurai (North India) and Rev. P. Paulraj (South India). Kindly uphold them in earnest prayer as they assume their responsibilities from 1st April 2026, that they may serve with wisdom, humility, and a deep sense of divine calling.

May we not merely admire the empty tomb, but yield ourselves to the risen Lord who calls us from it. May our lives bear witness not in word alone, but in surrendered obedience so that Christ indeed reigns.

Yours in the service of the risen and reigning Lord,

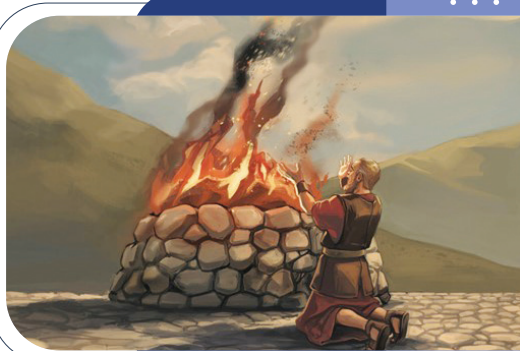

Rev. Vijay Prasanna Isaac

A LIFE LAID ON THE ALTAR

Nicholas Ludwig von Zinzendorf was born on May 26, 1700, into a very wealthy family in Germany. One day, at an art exhibition, he was deeply moved by a realistic painting of Jesus Christ hanging on the cross. Beneath the painting, he read the inscription: "This have I done for thee; what hast thou done for Me?" Immediately, he surrendered his entire life to Jesus. He resolved, "I have done nothing for the Jesus who has loved me for so long; but from now on, I will do whatever He leads me to do." In 1732, he established the Moravian Missionary Movement. During his time, for every 10 members in the community, 20 missionaries were sent out. When it was impossible to send missionaries to the West Indies, he inspired men to sell themselves into slavery so they could minister to the enslaved people, working for their own food while performing sacrificial service.

The God of the Calling

In Romans 12:1, the Apostle Paul writes to the church in Rome: "I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that you present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable to God, which is your reasonable service." Throughout this epistle, Paul speaks of various callings. He states that "the gifts and the calling of God are irrevocable" (Rom 11:29). He introduces God as the one who called him to be an Apostle (1:1), the God who calls those things which do not exist as though they did (4:17), the one who calls all nations (1:6) and those who were not His people (9:25), and the one who calls us to be saints (1:7) according to His purpose (8:28). After introducing this God to the church, he issues a call to surrender in Chapter 12.

The Call to Surrender

The word "Surrender" implies yielding, handing over, or seeking refuge. It means giving up full control and ownership to someone with superior power and authority. In Hebrew, the term 'Kni'a' refers to unconditional surrender. God, who knew and called us before we were formed in our mother's womb, invites us to place ourselves fully in His hands. In Romans 12:1,

Paul highlights four aspects of this surrender:

1. Surrendering the Body

Paul's first plea is to "present your bodies." He asks, "Do you not know that your body is the temple of the Holy Spirit who is in you... and you are not your own? For you were bought at a price" (1 Cor 6:19-20). Therefore, we must glorify God with the bodies that belong to Him.

Every part of our body is given to glorify Him. Paul notes that we should not present our members as instruments of unrighteousness to sin, but as instruments of righteousness to God (Rom 6:13). Our "old man" was crucified with Him so that the body of sin might be done away with (Rom 6:6). We must surrender our eyes, tongue, hands, and feet-everything that tempts us to sin-to the cross of Christ.

A young believer who was reading the Bible during his travel by train was asked by some strangers to "lend a hand" for a game of gambling. He replied, "I'm sorry, I left my hands at home." When they looked confused, he explained, "The hands I have now belong to Jesus. I surrendered my old hands to Him this morning, and these hands cannot gamble."

Yes, beloved, like this young man, let us surrender to Jesus all the members of our body that tempt us to sin every day, and let us live as members of His body as witnesses to Him.

2. Surrendering to Holiness

The second word Paul uses is "Holy." We are called to live holy lives. "Be holy, for I am holy" (Lev 19:2). As worshippers of a holy God, we must reflect Christ in society. Paul urges us to cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God (2 Cor 7:1). In a sin-filled world, we must maintain our distinctiveness through holiness.

The ermine, a small animal found in North America, is known for its pure white fur. It values its cleanliness so highly that if hunters spread mud at the entrance of its burrow, the ermine would rather remain outside and face death at the hands of the hunters than soil its white coat in the mud. In the same way, we too must treasure our spiritual purity.

Even though the ermine is only a creature with five senses and may be caught and killed, it still refuses to become unclean. If even such an animal guards its purity so carefully, how much more should we, as human beings, dedicate ourselves to preserving our purity always.

3. Surrendering to Please God

The third phrase is "Acceptable (Pleasing) to God." Paul says, "For do I now persuade men, or God? Or do I seek to please men? For if I still pleased men, I would not be a bondservant of Christ" (Gal 1:10). David also prayed, "I delight to do Your will, O my God" (Ps 40:8). Regarding Daniel, the Lord said, "You are greatly beloved" (Dan 9:23).

A person who is pleasing to God will only do what God desires. They are ready for any sacrifice to fulfill His plan, loving Him with all their heart.

Sadhu Sundar Singh, often called the Apostle of India, was disowned by his family for his faith. His father once tried to tempt him back, offering him his vast inheritance and a beautiful bride. Sundar Singh replied, "I have already given my only heart to my beloved Jesus. I have no other heart left to give to anyone else." Just as you give the whole space of your heart to your loved ones, let us also, like Sadhu Sundar Singh, dedicate the one heart we have completely to our beloved Jesus, who loves us beyond measure, and live only to please Him.

4. Surrendering as a Living Sacrifice

Finally, Paul calls us to be a "Living Sacrifice." Typically, a "sacrifice" implies death. So, what is a "living sacrifice"? In the Old Testament, sacrifices involved the shedding of blood. A living sacrifice means placing oneself entirely on God's altar. It is not about physical death, but the death of our ego, desires, and self-will.

It means saying, "I will live, but not for myself." As David said, "I shall not die, but live, and declare the works of the Lord" (Ps 118:17). It is a daily practice of handing over our lifestyle to His grace.

Conclusion: The only reasonable act of worship we can offer is to present our bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and pleasing to God.

Honoring God's Call

*Once a Missionary, Always
a Missionary*

Missionary is one who commissioned by God and sent to proclaim the Gospel of Jesus Christ and make disciples. They cross geographical and cultural boundaries to reach the unreached people groups, planting churches, and fostering both spiritual and social transformation within communities.

The word "Missionary" finds its roots in the Latin missio ("act of sending") and the Greek apostolos ("sent one") rooted in the Great Commission. It signifies, that an individual is set apart and sent to do God's work of sharing the Gospel, establishing faith communities, and transforming society while honoring local cultures and languages.

In the era following the departure of foreign missionaries, God raised a generation of cross-cultural missionaries with in India. Today, these individuals serve through various organizations among the unreached groups that they too experience the free gift of salvation and deliverance from sin. FMPB is the one of the leading mission organisation.

Recognizing the vastness of the remaining task and the call and commitment of our Missionaries, the FMPB Executive Committee has formally adopted the principle: "Once a Missionary, Always a Missionary."

This initiative enables missionaries to fulfil their calling through their continual presence in the mission field, outside their home states as long as they wish to serve even till the end of their life. Just as missionaries came to India once left a lasting legacy, now our missionaries are invited to follow the same path to create history for God's Kingdom.

We invite you to pray, encourage, and support our retired and superannuated missionaries as they take courageous and firm steps in faith to stand for God in mission field.

From Despair to Divine Calling The Life and Legacy of Mrs. Sunita Singh

Every generation is blessed with a few lives that quietly demonstrate the transforming power of God's love. Such lives become living testimonies of hope, perseverance, and divine purpose for the larger community. Mrs. Sunita Singh was one such remarkable life.

Born on October 2, 1971, in Jagdishpur in Bihar, she shared her birthday with Mahatma Gandhi and she shared his vision of being a blessing to the nation. She was raised in an orthodox family where tradition and strong cultural values shaped her early life. Like many young women in rural India, her life began with modest circumstances and the struggles that accompany them.

She was married to Mr. Virendra Kumar at a young age. The early years of their marriage were marked by deep spiritual struggles and emotional distress. In her testimony, Sunita shared that she had experienced intense spiritual bondage and despair.

Yet it was at this very moment that God intervened and brought the break-through in her life. In God's providence, her husband watched the Jesus Film, which sparked a search for truth and hope. The very next day he brought Sunita to a pastor who prayed for her. During that prayer, she experienced healing and deliverance. The chains of despair were broken, and a new chapter of life began.

When Sunita Singh and her husband accepted Jesus Christ as their personal Savior, their personal transformation soon became a lifelong calling to uplift the poor and the downtrodden. Soon afterward, Sunita received a profound spiritual vision in which God asked if she would be willing to serve Him in difficult places—through jungles, rivers, mountains, valleys, and wherever He would lead. With unwavering faith, she responded with a wholehearted “yes,” committing her life and family to God's service.

Ever since she joined the Friends Missionary Prayer Band in 1992, her life became a remarkable journey of missionary service across India. Along with her husband and family, she served faithfully in seven mission fields—Haryana, Uttar Pradesh, Odisha, West Bengal, Himachal Pradesh, Jammu and Kashmir, and Bihar.

These mission stations symbolized sacrifice, perseverance, and obedience to God's calling. In remote villages, tribal regions, and mountainous areas, Sunita quietly lived out the message of Christ—praying with the broken, encouraging the discouraged, and serving communities with compassion. I would say God enabled her to be another ‘Mother Teresa’ from Bihar.

Those who knew Sunita, remember a remarkably beautiful and dignified woman of deep prayer, humility, and gentle strength. She faithfully supported her husband in ministry and raised her family with love and spiritual devotion. God blessed them with three daughters, who reflect dignity, grace, and strong Christian values.

On March 9, 2026, surrounded by her husband and children, Mrs. Sunita Singh was called home to the Lord. She is now in a heavenly place where there is no more sorrow, no more pain, and no more tears, but eternal joy in the presence of the Lord.

Her life reminds us that a meaningful life is not measured by wealth, status, or recognition, but by faithfulness to God's calling and compassion toward others. FMPB is deeply indebted to Mrs. Sunita Singh and her family for a life that stands as a shining example of sacrificial commitment and dedicated service to God and the nation.

The words of Scripture beautifully summarize her legacy: “Well done, good and faithful servant... Enter into the joy of your Lord.” (Matthew 25:21)

May her life continue to inspire the community to walk more faithfully in the path of truth, love, and service.

FMPB Missionaries Dedication

7 & 8 March '26 | QMB Church, Visakhapatnam, A.P.

While they were worshipping the Lord and fasting, the Holy Spirit said, "Set apart for me Barnabas and Saul for the work to which I have called them." So after they had fasted and prayed, they placed their hands on them and sent them off. Acts 13:2,3

All glory, honour and praise to our Almighty God for this glorious event of Missionaries Dedication, with 52 missionaries coming together, serving in 15 states of our country, who are being sponsored by Visakhapatnam brothers and sisters. This ceremony brought together over 300 prayer partners, alongside a significant leadership.

On Saturday, March 7, 2026, QMB Church, Visakha, echoed with "one voice" as 52 missionaries, uniformly clad in white, sang their hearts out: "Senaon ka Yehova, hamare sang sang hai; Yaqub ka Parmeshwar, hamara uncha garh hai" meaning, the Lord of Hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our high tower.

During the program, our FMPB General Secretary Rev. Vijay P Issac delivered the Word of God which reminded everyone of the great responsibility and privilege of participating in God's mission. Rev. Solomon Gnanasekaran, FMPB Field Secretary, gave the updates about the Field ministry. Rev. Prasad RJBV, Zonal Secretary, gave the key note address. The congregation was deeply moved by the testimonies of Bro. Shaik Subhani and Bro. Bangaru Naidu, who are serving in the challenging terrains of Jammu, Kashmir and Rajasthan.

- Bro. Prajwal

The dedication prayer was offered for the missionaries by Rev. Rajesh Pakki, Union Chapel and a few local pastors. Prayer for the sponsors was offered by Rev. G. Stephen Peter, QMB Church. Calvary Seva Ratna, Rev. P. V. Prasad of Calvary Baptist Church and Mr. Isaac of QMB Church and many other dignitaries graced the occasion. This event was followed by a love feast.

The Lord enabled the sponsors to host their respective missionaries in their homes, which paved the way for a better understanding and good relationship between them and for the meaningful prayer support. The sponsors further encouraged the missionaries by bestowing them with gifts.

The impact continued into the following day, the 8th March, as many missionaries attended their respective sponsors' Churches and shared the Word and their testimonies and the Church Pastors also offered dedication prayers for them.

We give Jesus Christ all the glory for He alone is the reason for this blessed event, for the safe travels, for the good health, protection, cooperation from the sponsors, Churches and for every other good thing. May His name alone be glorified forever and ever Amen!

Entered Eternal Rest

It is with profound shock and deep sorrow that we announce the passing of our Honorary Mobilization Secretary, Upa K. Songkhotuan (85), who faithfully served the Lord through Friends Missionary Prayer Band, Churachandpur, for more than two decades.

He entered into eternal rest on 12 March 2026 at 7:12 p.m. following a brief illness at his residence.

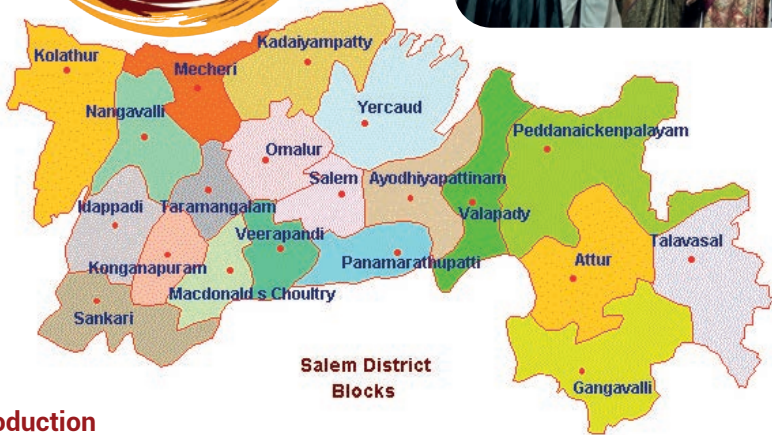

Upa K. Songkhotuan continued to serve as a Senior Advisor to FMPB, Churachandpur, whenever needed, remaining committed to the ministry until his very last breath. Through his enthusiastic dedication, unwavering faith, and selfless service to the Lord, the ministry of FMPB in Churachandpur has grown and flourished greatly.

We thank God for his life, his faithful ministry, and the lasting legacy he leaves behind. His homegoing is a great loss to the Church and to all who were blessed by his leadership, counsel, and devotion.

May Almighty God comfort and console the bereaved family and all loved ones he leaves behind during this time of grief.

Rev. P. Thawngkhankap, Regional Secretary, NEI Mobilization

Introduction

Mecheri is a town panchayat union located in Mettur taluk of Salem district, Tamil Nadu. The name Salem refers to a place surrounded by mountains. The district is widely known as the “City of Steel” and the “City of Mangoes.” Its history dates back to the third century BC, and over the centuries it has been ruled by the Pandyas, Pallavas, and the Vijayanagara Empire. In 1965, the original Salem district was divided to form the present-day Salem and Dharmapuri districts.

Salem lies at the foothills of the popular hill station Yercaud and is one of the major producers of silver rings in India. The famous Mettur Dam, built across the River Cauvery, is located in this region. Constructed under the supervision of Sir George Stanley, it is also known as the Stanley Reservoir. Completed in 1934 after nine years of construction involving more than 10,000 workers, it is the largest dam in Tamil Nadu. The dam has a maximum height of 214 feet and a width of 171 feet and stores approximately 9,347 crore cubic feet of water. Two hydroelectric power stations are also situated here.

About Mecheri

Mecheri town panchayat union consists of 19 villages. According to the 2011 census, there were 6,330 houses. The current estimated population is around 38,300. The name Mecheri is believed to have originated from Meichal Aeri, meaning a place where cows and calves graze. The Samrajpet area of Mecheri is well known for its handloom weaving. Silk sarees produced here are exported to many parts of India. The Mecheri breed of sheep is internationally recognized, and a dedicated research centre for this breed is located in the area.

Industry and Occupation

The JSW (Jindal Steel Works) iron factory, one of the largest in the region, provides employment for many people in and around Mecheri. In addition, residents are involved in brick-kiln work, agriculture, livestock rearing, handloom and power-loom weaving. More than 5,000 people are engaged in the weaving industry. Major crops cultivated include sorghum, millets, groundnut, and paddy. Trade and small-scale industries form the backbone of the local economy.

People and Religious Background

Mecheri is home to people from different states who have come here for employment. Muslims form about 0.3% of the population and do not have dedicated places of worship locally. Christians make up about 0.2%, most of whom are migrant workers who attend church in Mettur. Recently, a small CSI church has been established where worship services are being conducted.

The majority of the local population practices traditional and clan-based worship. Many ancestral temples are found in the area, and there is limited interest in Christianity or other faiths.

Beginning of the Mission Field

The Mecheri mission field was first started about 20 years ago but was later closed due to a slowdown in outreach and soul-winning work. After a gap of 12 years, the work was restarted in August 2021 when we began serving in this field as a family. Since then, we have been visiting more than 10 surrounding villages, sharing the gospel, and praying with families who are open to listening. While some are receptive, many are hesitant to gather together for regular prayer meetings.

Ministry Approaches

Our ministry in this field currently includes:

- Individual evangelism
- Home-to-home visitation
- Outreach to new villages
- Meeting and praying with interested families in small groups

Challenges in the Ministry

1. Fear, opposition, and family pressure prevent many from openly accepting the gospel.
2. Strong attachment to superstition and other faith worship.
3. Opposition to the gospel from certain groups.
4. Difficulty in establishing regular prayer groups.
5. Social and ethnic divisions that hinder unity among believers.

Prayer Requests

- Pray that fear and opposition will be removed and that many will receive the gospel boldly.
- Pray for freedom from superstition and idolatry.
- Pray for open hearts among those who oppose the gospel.
- Pray for the establishment of strong prayer groups in the villages.
- Pray for unity among believers from different backgrounds.
- Pray that God will open doors for the gospel and that many will come to know Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior.

MANIYAMBADI CHURCH HISTORY

Marakatta Cluster

Denkanikottai Region
Tamil Nadu Zone

Written by: Mrs. D. Agnes Edward

GENERAL

Maniyambadi village is situated in Denkanikottai Taluk of Kelamangalam Block, Krishnagiri District, Tamil Nadu, India. Hinduism is the major religion practiced in the village. Maniyambadi consists of approximately 250 families and comes under the Bikkanaipalli Post Office.

Most of the villagers are daily wage earners engaged in agricultural labour. The population of the village includes people from Acharya, Vanniyar, Adi Dravidar, Lingayat, Balija Naidu communities, as well as Muslims.

BEGINNING OF THE CHURCH

The Denkanikottai field was opened in April 1983, and Mr. V. Thomas and Mrs. Vasantha Thomas were the first missionary family to serve in this field. In 1987, God used Dr. Johnson of Iru dhukottai to bring the gospel to Maniyambadi village through a miraculous healing.

The first person to accept Christ in Maniyambadi was Mr. Sakappa, a Hindu temple priest. After taking baptism, he was renamed Mr. Samuel Sakappa.

TESTIMONY OF MR. SAMUEL SAKAPPA

Mr. Sakappa, a temple priest from Maniyambadi, experienced a major turning point when his son became severely demon-possessed while studying at Pennagaram. Despite numerous poojas, mantras, and temple rituals, the child's condition worsened. On the advice of Dr. Johnson, Sakappa attempted to take his bedridden son to Iru dhukottai by bus. During the journey, the child appeared to have died.

However, the doctor treated the child and asked the family to wait. That night, prayer was offered, and God miraculously delivered the child. The next morning, the boy walked back to his father completely healed. Deeply moved by this miracle, Sakappa renounced idol worship. After receiving a New Testament and hearing the gospel, he and his family accepted Christ.

Local evangelist Mr. Pethuru Muniappa visited the family and encouraged them to take baptism. Mr. Sakappa was baptized at Panchapalli Dam, and later his entire family followed the Lord.

START OF REGULAR WORSHIP

After the baptism of the first believer, Mr. Pethuru Muniappa began visiting Maniyambadi regularly to conduct worship services. Mission records state that the worshipping group at Maniyambadi was formally established in September 1987.

Gradually, many other villagers accepted Christ. The families of Mr. Samuel Sakappa's brothers and his son-in-law, Mr. Daniel Maadhu, also came to faith.

TESTIMONY OF MR. DANIEL MAADHU

Mr. Daniel Maadhu shared that his family belonged to another faith before accepting Christ. After his father-in-law accepted Christ, their family also joined the Lord's fold. He was addicted to alcohol and faced many family problems, along with severe poverty. Mr. Sakappa shared the gospel with them and explained how accepting Christ would transform their lives. As a result, their entire family accepted Jesus Christ.

Mr. Pethuru Muniappa conducted worship in the village and baptized the family at Hosur.

CHURCH GROWTH

The Maniyambadi church grew as relatives and siblings of believers accepted Christ following personal encounters with God. Another significant factor contributing to church growth was the healing ministry of Dr. Johnson at Irudhukottai.

TESTIMONY OF MR. ANDREW SALAPPA:

As a teenager, Mr. Andrew Salappa learned about Jesus Christ through gospel tracts distributed in his village. During the same period, he suffered from typhoid, which villagers mistook for demon possession. He was taken to magicians and subjected to kajal and talismans, but his condition worsened. Later, he was taken to Irudhukottai, where Dr. Johnson felt his condition was critical.

Missionary Mr. Rajan Andrews visited the hospital, spoke about God's power using the story of Lazarus, and prayed for him after removing all talismans. After fifteen minutes of prayer, he was told that he would be healed in seven days and could attend baptism at Marandahalli Church. By the sixth day, he was able to eat one and a half balls of ragi kali. On the seventh day, without his parents' permission, he went to Marandahalli and took baptism wholeheartedly. He was baptized by Mr. V. Thomas in 1990.

Around the same time, an adult literacy programme began in the village with 62 students. When 60 students dropped out, the teacher stopped coming. For one and a half years, Mr. Andrew taught himself to read and developed a habit of reading the Bible daily. Later, his wedding was conducted at Maniyambadi Church by Rev. Varadharajan and others.

TESTIMONY OF MR. NAHAN:

Mr. Nahan, a relative of the first believer, worked as a marriage drummer in Krishnagiri District and was addicted to alcohol. Though his parents and siblings were believers, he ignored their repeated advice. For two years, he undertook a 41-day pilgrimage carrying Irumudi, but returned each time with heavy debts. In the third year, despite receiving only Rs. 10 from his brothers, he went again. During the climb, his Irumudi fell about 15 meters away, yet he escaped unharmed. Standing before the idol, he rejected idol worship and declared that there is only one true God.

He returned to the village, accepted Christ before his family, and later took baptism with them at Panchapalli Dam. Though extremely poor earlier, God has since blessed his family.

TESTIMONY OF MRS. TABITHAL

(KANAGA): Mrs. Kanaga, later named Tabithal, was born in a non-Christian family in Osalli village and married a Christian from Maniyambadi. After marriage, Pastor Andrews visited their home and prayed. Though she did not know how to pray, she experienced God's presence and felt led to read the Bible from Genesis, through which she realized that Jesus alone is God. Within three to four months of marriage, she accepted Christ and took baptism.

Their tiled-roof house later collapsed when a coconut tree fell on it. After staying at the pastor's house, God blessed them with a pucca house. God also blessed them with two daughters and later, after earnest early-morning prayer (3:00–4:00 a.m.), confirmed the gift of a son, whom they named Aakash.

OTHER TESTIMONIES

Mr. Arun began attending worship after being invited by the pastor. Through Bible reading, he came to know Christ and shared the gospel at his workplace. A woman named Lakshmakka and her family accepted Christ, and a coworker's three sick children were healed after attending church at Javanasandram.

Mr. Yuvaraj initially attended prayer meetings to mock them. However, by the third week, he began praying sincerely. Despite family opposition, he was baptized in a village well in 2012 by Mr. James and gave up all bad habits, including alcohol.

NAVAJEEVAN SEWA MANDAL (NSM)

The church also grew through the social work of NSM, which laid roads, distributed goats and saplings, ran schools, provided clothes and books, and conducted tuition classes. Though some people joined the church for benefits and later left, the present congregation seeks the Lord sincerely.

CHURCH LAND

In April 1989, Rs. 50 was paid as advance for the church land measuring 15 cents. Mr. Pethuru Muniappa and missionary Mr. Rajan Andrews were ministering during the land purchase.

CONGREGATION AND COMMUNITY

Earlier, people from Alahalli, Samandhkottai, Bikkanapalli, and Yellur attended worship. Due to caste issues, they later stopped attending. Currently, only Maniyambadi villagers attend worship, and all believers belong to the Adi Dravidar community.

CHURCH CONSTRUCTION

St. Andrews Church measures 40 × 20 feet, with mud walls. Initially, it had a tiled roof, which was replaced with an asbestos roof in 2000. The construction was carried out by the labour of local believers without any opposition. The church was dedicated to God's glory on 12.04.1990, attended by the entire village.

CHURCH ACTIVITIES

The church elders are Mr. Samuel Sakappa and Mr. Andrew Salappa. A monthly night prayer meeting is held with 25–30 participants. Holy Communion is conducted during the first week of every month, served by Mr. Andrew Salappa.

PRAYER POINTS

- ❖ Anti-Christian groups conduct tuition classes during Sunday worship hours, preventing children from attending church.
- ❖ Due to caste issues, other villagers refuse to worship with Maniyambadi believers.
- ❖ The Church to bear much more fruit these days.

A Missionary Who Served the Poor in India

Mark Daniel Buntain was a devoted missionary whose life reflected Christ's deep compassion for the poor and the needy. He was born on January 26, 1923, in Winnipeg, Manitoba, Canada, into the home of a Pentecostal minister. From an early age, Mark was inspired by missionary stories and developed a strong desire to dedicate his life to serving God.

While working as a radio broadcaster, Mark experienced a powerful call from God to leave his profession and enter full-time ministry. After marrying Huldah Monroe, he resigned from broadcasting and served as a pastor in Saskatchewan, Canada. He later ministered as a missionary evangelist in several countries, including Taiwan, Sri Lanka, the Philippines, Hong Kong, and Japan, gaining valuable experience in cross-cultural ministry.

God's Call to India

In 1954, in obedience to God's clear call, Mark and Huldah Buntain arrived in Kolkata, India, after a three-month sea journey, carrying their one-year-old daughter, Bonnie, in their arms. Their initial intention was to spend just one year in India serving the poor. However, what they encountered was a humanitarian crisis of overwhelming proportions. That one-year commitment soon turned into a lifetime of humble and sacrificial service.

Mark Daniel Buntain
(1923 - 1989)

They began their ministry in a simple manner, pitching a tent on an empty plot of land and preaching the gospel of Jesus Christ. During one such meeting, a man interrupted Mark and said, "Preacher, feed our bellies first, then tell us about a God in heaven who loves us." Those words pierced Mark's heart and transformed his understanding of ministry. He realized that the gospel must be demonstrated not only through words, but also through compassionate action.

The Birth of Calcutta Mercy Mission

This defining moment led to the establishment of the Calcutta Mercy Mission in 1964. The mission embraced a holistic approach to ministry—feeding the hungry, educating the poor, and providing medical care to the sick.

Under this God-given vision

- The Assembly of God Church School was founded in Kolkata, offering education and hope to thousands of underprivileged children.
- A small medical clinic was established, which later grew into a multi-specialty hospital, bringing healing and comfort to countless people.

Growth and Expansion of the Ministry

Mark Daniel Buntain served for many years as the pastor of the Assembly of God Church, Kolkata, which became a center for church planting and ministry across North India. Through this ministry, more than 900 churches were established. He also effectively used mass communication, broadcasting the gospel through radio programmes in Hindi, English, and Bengali, thereby reaching millions of listeners across India and beyond.

The Brave Huldah Buntain - A Legacy That Lives On

On June 4, 1989, following the sudden death of her husband, Mark Buntain, Huldah Buntain courageously chose to remain in Kolkata and continue the vision and mission they had built together. In a society largely dominated by men, Huldah exemplified strong, courageous, and faith-filled leadership.

Under her leadership, Calcutta Mercy Ministry expanded globally and now operates in more than 21 countries, continuing to serve the poor with love, dignity, and compassion. Today, their daughter Bonnie, along with other family members and an international team, continues this legacy. Bonnie became a registered nurse, and her husband Jim, a thoracic surgeon. Their professional expertise and compassionate upbringing have made them invaluable partners in the ongoing ministry of Mercy Hospital.

Conclusion

Mark Daniel Buntain's life stands as a powerful testimony of obedience to God's call and faith expressed through action. He did not merely preach the gospel—he lived it by feeding the hungry, educating the poor, healing the sick, and bringing hope to the hopeless. His vision, born out of compassion on the streets of Kolkata, has grown into a global movement that continues to transform lives around the world.

OBITUARY

Mr. Peter Percy Prabhakara Rao Immaraaj (born 26 August 1926) and Mrs. Sylvia Syamala Devi Prabhakara Rao (born 09 August 1933) were devoted FMPB Prayer Partners and faithful supporters for many decades in Secunderabad. Through their lives and witness, they introduced the vision of missions to numerous families, inspiring many to participate in God's work. Their commitment to the Lord remained steadfast throughout their lives, and they served Him faithfully until their very last breath. As a couple, they were a source of great blessing and encouragement to countless individuals and families. In God's sovereign will, both were called to their heavenly home within a span of just one week. Mr. Peter Percy Prabhakara Rao entered eternal rest on 22 December 2025, and Mrs. Sylvia Syamala Devi followed on 03 January 2026. As we thank and praise God for their exemplary lives and powerful testimony, we also remember with love and prayer the families they have left behind. May the Lord comfort them with His peace and strengthen them with the hope of eternal life.

Praise God: We praise God for His grace in enabling the children to grow in the Lord through Sunday school classes and been for leading children under 14 years of age in a three-day fasting Pray held in the Rajbagh area. A believer named Parani was in mental distress as he could not pay his children's school fees due to a decline in his business; God helped him restart his business through everyone's Prayers. God granted grace to share the Gospel with the tribal people. Let us praise God for the deliverance Swetha received from the clutches of the devil through Prayer.

Pray: Pray for Shabi, Rohit, Easwar Das, Bindu, Daniel George and Paras to be delivered from drug addiction. The Gospel has been preached among the Gujar and tribal people living in various parts of Kathua district; pray for God to work in the hearts of the people so that they may accept the Lord. Pray for the families of Yashoda, Mangal, Sunitha, Lakshmi and individuals Kushal, Manvi, Vijay, Rohit and Bindu to profess their faith in Christ. Shashi Balu, who suffered from a primary illness, is struggling to sit even after surgery; pray for God's complete healing. Pray for the resumption of worship services in the villages of Nagri, Palal, Jattana, Mahichak and Sondali, which were stopped due to opposition.

Prayer Brings Victory

In the villages of Borpada and Dhanpada in the Peint field of Maharashtra, missionaries and believers have been facing severe opposition. The village people planned to pass a resolution through the Dhanpada Panchayat to completely ban worship services held in the villages and called for a meeting on January 27, 2026. Our missionaries and believers gathered in Borpada village on the night of January 26, 2026, and prayed. The next day, our believers attended the Panchayat meeting. Opponents presented demands against the worshippers and believers. Even though the number of our believers was small, the Lord gave them great courage and wisdom to speak with humility. Furthermore, they shared their testimonies for Christ. Hearing this, the Panchayat official stated that the Panchayat has no authority to pass any resolution against Christians and that doing so would create severe legal problems for everyone. Because of this, the harsh demands against the believers were withdrawn. God helped so that worship could continue without hindrance. Let us praise God who heard our prayers and helped change the situation.

Praise God: Through the night meetings conducted in Herpal and Sulpathra villages, the Lord has touched many lives in a powerful way. We rejoice that two families, including a high caste family, have accepted the Lord and come into the saving knowledge of Christ. Truly, His Word is living and active, reaching hearts beyond all barriers. We also praise God for His deliverance upon Mantra and Manu, who were bound by the clutches of the enemy. Through earnest and persistent prayer, they have experienced freedom and peace in Christ. Let us glorify God for His authority over all powers of darkness. We thank the Lord for His healing touch upon Anjali, who was suffering from breast cancer. By His grace and through the prayers of His people, she is now recovering. We acknowledge that He is Jehovah Rapha, our Healer. We also rejoice in the success of the first-ever youth camp. Many young people attended and were deeply moved by the Word of God. It is a great joy to see them dedicating their lives to the Lord and committing themselves for His service. Let us praise God for raising a new generation for His Kingdom.

Pray: Pray for a suitable marriage alliance for Thaniya, the believer's daughter. May the Lord guide and bless her with a God-fearing life partner according to His perfect will. Pray for Pooja from Sirpat village, that she may grow strong and deeply rooted in her faith, standing firm in all circumstances. Pray for all the contacts in Shul, Sirpat, Muthal, and Samba villages. May they participate actively and enthusiastically in all gatherings, and may their faith be strengthened day by day. For the upcoming "Confessing Christ" event. May it be conducted successfully without any hindrance, and may many come forward boldly to confess their faith in the Lord. For the Church elders' training program, that it may be fruitful and Spirit-led, equipping leaders to serve faithfully and shepherd God's people with wisdom and grace. Let us continue to intercede with faith, believing that the One who has begun this good work will carry it on to completion.

Praise God: We praise Him for His healing power revealed in the life of the boy Ark, who was suffering from a severe stomach infection. Through the faithful prayers of his mother, the Lord graciously granted him complete healing. Truly, God hears the cries of His people and answers in His perfect time. We also thank and glorify God for His mighty deliverance in the life of Sapna, who had been troubled and screaming at night due to the influence of an demonic spirit. Through the earnest prayers of the believers, the Lord set her free and filled her with peace. Let us praise God, for He has authority over all darkness, and His name brings freedom and restoration. We further praise God for His sustaining grace that has enabled all the ministries in this region to continue without any hindrance. Despite challenges and opposition, the Lord has been faithful in strengthening His servants and opening doors for His work to go forward. All glory be to Him for His constant presence and guidance.

Pray: Pray for Kajolin's husband, who is currently preventing her from attending Church. May the Lord touch his heart, remove every barrier, and fill him with the love of Christ. Pray that he may experience a transformation and come to know the truth personally. Pray for Sunitha's family, who have been waiting on the Lord for many years for the blessing of a child. May God remember them in His mercy and grant them the joy of parenthood according to His will. Pray for a good harvest for all the believers in this region. May the Lord bless the work of their hands, provide for their needs, and grant them abundance so that they may testify of His goodness. Pray for the missionaries, workers, and believers serving faithfully in this area. May God protect them from all harm and danger, strengthen them in body and spirit, and use them mightily for the expansion of His Kingdom. Let us remain steadfast in prayer, trusting that our God is able to do exceedingly abundantly above all that we ask or think for Sathar, who received complete healing from kidney stone problems through Prayer. A believer named Rahlikai fell from a two-wheeler and sustained severe injuries; God showed mercy for a speedy recovery through treatment and prayer. Through Prayer, God granted a safe delivery to believer Kailash's daughter. Let us praise God for Manjubai from Nehuda village, who has newly joined our ministry.

Pal: Mahendran & Pushpam

Praise God: Let us praise God

Pray: Let us pray with a burden for Kashiram, Sanlal, Abchar and Rupsingh, who have backslidden in faith, to return and remain steadfast in the Lord; for Manju, who separated from her husband after a quarrel, to reunite with him; and for the stopped worship services in the villages of Balona, Panch Paida, Poonda, Sunkat, Nimbol, Nangradas and Rajura to resume.

Fear of Death Removed

Raju Dhule from Hanuvatmal village in the Surgana field, Maharashtra, was diagnosed with a serious eye problem. Doctors informed him that a nerve in his eye had burst. He suffered intense pain and dizziness, and fear gripped his heart. In desperation, he requested prayer from the local evangelist. The congregation gathered at his home, fasting and praying fervently on his behalf. From that very day, Raju began to feel improvement. Soon after, he experienced complete healing. He testified in the Sunday service, giving all glory to God for restoring his health. Hallelujah!

Happy Birthday

Mrs. Suchitra Limma

Khandwa Region:

Isaac R & Seetha

Praise God: For the 50 people who attended the two-day fasting Pray at Hasanpura village Church and prayed with a burden for the salvation of the village people. In the training session held at Kalwa Church, about 25 women were trained on how to conduct Pray meetings in homes. Let us praise God for the large number of believers who participated in the Ash Wednesday service at Kalwa Church and decided to fast and pray for 40 days.

Pray: Let us pray for Bhagwati from Mirpur, who is suffering from various physical weaknesses due to pregnancy-related issues. May God grant complete healing; for Savitha, who is unable to eat due to stomach irritation; and for Jeenlimaji, who is affected by paralysis and abandoned by family. May God grant them complete recovery. Let us also pray for Suganthi's family, who have been praying for a child for many years after marriage, to be blessed with a child.

Dhar:

Santu Marandi & Rakhi Mardi

Praise God: Many participated in the Women's Soul-Winning Training Camp held at Tattapani village and decided to win their relatives and villagers for Christ. Let us praise God for opening the doors to preach the Gospel for the first time in the villages of Gujramhana, Sajanipura and Mundali. In Amjikhuma village God has graciously enabled us to form a new Prayer group to start. Let us praise God for the three people who have joined the flock of Jesus.

Pray: For the villagers to participate enthusiastically and benefit from the adult education program started in Dadapanai village; for Anil Kewari, who is suffering from kidney problems, to be healed; for the Holy Spirit to work in Manavari taluk where doors are currently closed to the Gospel; and for the pre-planned training camps, Church elders and women's meetings to take place successfully.

Gohpur: Nirupoma Beberta

Praise God: By His strength, the Good News has been proclaimed for the very first time in 11 villages. We rejoice that the light of the Gospel has begun to shine in places where His name had not been heard before. The Lord has also enabled His servants to carry out consistent follow-up ministry in 19 villages through the distribution of handbills, personal visits, and prayer. Truly, it is by His grace alone that hearts are being prepared and lives are being touched. We thank God for His provision and care for the missionary serving in the Gohpur mission field. In His perfect timing, He has helped them find a suitable rented house, providing them stability and encouragement to continue the work faithfully. Let us praise Him for being a God who sees and provides for every need of His servants. We also praise God for the Cross Meditation meetings that are being conducted regularly. It is a great joy to see many people participating in these gatherings, meditating on the sacrifice and love of Christ, and receiving spiritual encouragement and blessings. May His name be glorified as more people come to understand the depth of His love through these meetings.

Pray: For the upcoming youth camp planned in the Gohpur mission field. May many young people attend with open hearts and receive God's blessings. Pray that their lives will be transformed, that they will grow in their relationship with the Lord, and that they will boldly stand as witnesses for Christ in their communities. For all the native workers serving in this region. May the Lord grant them renewed strength, zeal, and enthusiasm to labor faithfully for the salvation of their own people. May their efforts bear much fruit, and may many come to know the Lord through their ministry. For the believers in all these villages, that they may lead prayerful and witnessing lives. May they grow strong in faith, remain steadfast in trials, and shine as lights in their communities through their words and actions. Pray for permission to screen the "Jesus Film" in all the villages. May the Lord open doors and remove every obstacle so that many people can watch and understand the life and message of Christ. Pray that as the film is shown, hearts will be touched, and many will respond to the Gospel. For a great spiritual harvest in all these areas. May the seeds that have been sown bring forth abundant fruit, and may many souls be added to the Kingdom of God.

Declared Blameless

In the state of Gujarat, Monish Bhai, a member of the Sachin village congregation in the Surat field, made a living by transporting sarees from the textile market in a tempo and delivering them to customer shops. Because he is a believer, a customer made it a habit to constantly find fault and complain about him. One day, a false accusation was made against Monish, claiming that sarees had gone missing from his tempo. Monish went to the church and shared his burden during the prayer meeting. Through prayer, the sarees were found, and the customer withdrew the complaint. Let us praise God who removed the disgrace.

Mr. G. Henry
Solomon &
Mrs. Angel Jeba S

Mr. G. Henry Solomon was born on 10/05/1986 in Pillayan Manai, Thoothukudi district, to Mr. Gnanaraj and Mrs. Kamala, as their firstborn son. Before his birth, the family lived in Coimbatore, where his father ran a grocery shop but became addicted to alcohol, which led to the shop's closure. Later, his mother moved to her father's house in Trichy. During that time, she faithfully attended the FMPB house prayer meetings held at Mrs. Mary Teacher's home and dedicated the child in her womb for God's ministry.

Despite many hardships, she ensured Henry's education and admitted him to a hostel in Kadatchapuram. He grew up prayerfully, reading the Scriptures and living a disciplined life until the ninth standard. After the hostel closed, he continued his studies from home. During a summer vacation, he went to Chennai for work to support his education. Because he had money he was led into harmful habits and wrong friendships. For nearly seven years, he worked in various places without stability and felt deep emptiness, which saddened his family.

When his uncle reminded him of his mother's dedication for ministry, the family began to pray earnestly. Through Nehemiah 8:10, he repented, rededicated his life to God, and regained the joy of salvation. In 2011, he joined FMPB as a missionary. Though concerned about his family's needs, he recognized God's faithful provision and surrendered fully to the call. He served at the Headquarters for a year, after which his marriage was arranged through senior missionaries.

Ms. Angel Jeba was born on 25/02/1986 in Vickramasingapuram, Tirunelveli district, to Mr. R. Sornaraj and Mrs. Leela Pushpam, as their third daughter. From childhood, she actively participated in Sunday School, church activities, and FMPB conferences. While in the eleventh standard through a message by Stanley Prince Annan, she accepted Christ as her personal Saviour. Later, burdened for the nation and strengthened through Scripture, she committed her life to full-time ministry.

After college, she attended the FMPB missionary interview in 2006, completed training in Jhansi, and in 2007 began serving as a missionary teacher at Jhawda English School. They were married on 28 May 2012 and continued serving together. Over the years, they ministered in Jhansi, Sankheda, Dabhoi, Kawant, and Naswadi, serving especially among the Dungra Bhil people. From 2024, they have been overseeing the Naswadi field and Kawant hostel ministry.

The Lord has blessed them with two sons: Johan Abdul (15/05/2013), studying in 8th standard at Santhosha Vidhyalaya, Donavur, and Ivaan Immanuel (29/07/2020), who will soon join school. They humbly request continued prayers for their family and ministry.

Blessed Resurrection Sunday!

HE IS RISEN

Death couldn't hold Him
Grave couldn't contain Him
Satan couldn't stop Him
Every knee will bow to Him

He is alive, He is Risen, and He's coming back again as the King of Kings and the Lord of all things!
